Having published a transcription of the first 100 years or so of the church records for Friedrichstal and Welschneureut, I have been thinking about producing a volume on the "First Families of Friedrichstal." I have all the data in the church records assembled into genealogies, so now its a matter of adding data from other records. Any suggestions?

HUSBAND - Robert DUPUIS-1422

The marriage record of Abraham DuPuis and Susanne Gorenflo states that Abraham is the son of Robert DuPuis, a French refuge and resident of Yverdun, Switzerland. No further mention of Robert is found in the church records, so it appears that he was living in Switzerland in 1714. Abraham's mother is not named.

| HUSBAND | Jacob HERLONG-1116 | Yr of Birth 1717 |
| WIFE | Marie Susanne DUPUIS-1117 | Yr of Birth 1723 |

HUSBAND - Jacob HERLONG-1116

Jacob Herlong and wife were in Orangeburgh Dist. SC by 1754. Information from Stuart Herlan, a descendent of a brother to Jacob, says that Jacob was baptized in the Walloon Church (French Reformed Church). Stuart also says that the name was Herlan in Germany and that Jacob's father, Isaac Herlan, posted his bond so Jacob could leave Germany. The family sailed on the ship Cunliffe to England and then to America in September 1752. The passenger list for the Cunliffe says that Jacob had with him his wife and 2 children, Catherine 7 and Magdalin 4. Further records of this family are found in the Giessendanner Record which is printed in Salley's History of Orangeburg Co., SC.

Examination of records from Kirchenbuch der evangelischen Kirche in 1997 by Melanie Nolan revealed birth, marriage and death dates for the Herlan and DuPuis families prior to 1752 and confirmed what was said by Stuart Herlan.

Family tradition says that there were four other sons who were killed at the Battle of Cowpens, SC in the Rev. War.

From Jack Stewart: " The son, Jacob Herlan who was born in Friedrichstal, was to become the progenitor of the South Carolina Herlongs. He married Mary-Susannah DuPuis, daughter of Abraham DuPuis, Sr., in 1744. They became the parents of four daughters born in Friedrichstal; Maria-Catharina born December 7, 1745, Maria-Magdalin born about 1748, Rebekka born August 17, 1749 and Elizabeth born Jul 7, 1751." Church records revealed this to be true with the exact birth date of Maria-Magdalin being October 5, 1747.

WIFE - Marie Susanne DUPUIS-1117

Marie Susanne did prove to be the daughter of Abraham DuPuis, Sr. who traveled on the Cunliffe with Jacob and Susannah. Also on the ship was Abraham DuPuis, Jr., his wife, Susanne Herlan (d/o Isaac Herlan and Marie Bourquain) and 1 child, Hester, age 4.

Although family tradition has always held that Marie Susanne DuPuis was born in France, the church records of Friedrichstal, Germany prove that she was born in 1723 in Friedrichstal, Germany. Her baptism name is written as Marie Susanne (the records are in French). Since I prefer this more lyrical name for her, it is what I will use.

HUSBAND - Abraham DUPUIS-864

WIFE - Susanne HERLAN-697

Relationship: Birth record states that Susanne Herlan is the daughter of Isaac Herlan and Marie Bourquain, his wife.

Death: Giessendanner's Record found in Salley's History of Orangeburg County.

Susanne Herlan married Abraham DuPuis, Jr., the son of Abraham DuPuis, Sr. and Marie Susanne Gorenflo. Susanne Herlan is the half sister of our ancestor Jacob Herlan who married Marie Susanne DuPuis, another child of Abraham, Sr.

It is Susanne Herlan, wife of Abraham DuPuis, Jr. whose death is noted in the Giessendanner Record that is found in Salley's History of Orangeburg County (SC). Susanne died in childbirth and lived only five years after her arrival in America (1752-1757).

CHILD 1 - Esther DUPUIS-1429

This is the child who is called Hester on the Cunliffe passenger record. Her baptism name is given as Esther.

CHILD 2 - Elizabeth DUPUIS-1438

A date of death for Elizabeth was not found in the Friedrichstal church records, although we know that she was not counted on the passenger list of the Cunliffe along with Abraham, his wife and a child named Hester. Perhaps she died on the trip to America.

Children:

2. i Abraham Dupuis Junr..
3. ii Marguerite Dupuis born ABT 1735.

Second Generation

2. Abraham Dupuis Junr. born Wurttemberg, Germany, married Susannah _____, born ABT FEB 1720, Wurttemberg, Germany, died 27 Nov 1757, Orangeburgh, South Carolina, buried 28 Nov 1757, Husb.plantation, Orangeburgh, South Carolina. 1752 Oct 20 Petition of Abraham DuPuis ship Cunliff, 50 acres. OGS News Vol I, pg. 46. 20 Oct 1752 Petition of Abraham DuPuis Jr. Cunliff, 150 acres. OGS News Vol I, pg. 46. 1753 Nov 27 Surv. 150 acres Turkey Hill. Abraham DuPuis, Junr. Plat 9:420; Grant 6:124. 1754 Sep 3 Grant Abraham Dupiers Jr. 150 acres O'Burgh. OGS News Vol I, pg. 63. Abraham Dupuis Jr. Arrived in Charleston in October of 1752 on the "Cunlift". In his bounty petition he stated that he had a wife (unnamed) and one child, Hester aged 4, I assume to be a female. He was granted 150 acres "on the bounty" between the Savannah and Santee Rivers. Also, in his request for the bounty he stated that "he had come with his friends and relations" to this country. Therefore, I believe we can conclude that his country of origin was Germany and probably the Wurttemberg or Baden area. Source-Council Journal Vol. 20 II page 432 20-Oct-1752. I think this name probably became Dupree in later years. [DH] Susannah: 1757 On Sunday Novembr 27th died in Child Bed and on Monday Novr 28th was enterred in the Plantation of Abraham Dupuis in Orangeburgh the Body of Susannah, wife of the said Abraham Dupuis, aged 37 years, 9 months. (Rev. Giessendanner).

Children:

i Mary Susannah Dupuis married Jacob Herlong, born Friedrichstal, Germany. Jacob: Had four daughters in Friederichstall, two of which died before the journey to America.

ii Hester Dupuis born ABT 1748, Wurttemberg, Germany.

iii Abraham Dupuis born 2 Feb 1754, Orangeburgh, South Carolina. 1754 On Sunday February 17th in Orangeburgh Church. Abraham, son of Abraham and Susannah La Puis; born February 2nd 1754. Susceptr. Henry Haym, Joseph Huber and Elizabeth his wife. (Rev. Giessendanner).

iv John Jacob Dupuis born 23 Oct 1757, Orangeburgh, South Carolina. 1757 On Sunday Novembr. 20th in Orangeburgh Church. John Jacob, son of Abraham and Susanna Du Puis; born Octobr. 23d 1757; Suret: John Giegelman, Jacob and Mary Susannah Herlan. (Rev. Giessendanner).

3. Marguerite Dupuis born ABT 1735, Purrysburg, Jasper Co., South Carolina, married ABT 1756, in Ebenezer, Georgia, John Adam Treutlen, born 1726, Berchtesgaden, Austria, (son of _____ Treutlen) died 1782, Orangeburgh, South Carolina. Marguerite died 25 Jun 1777, Effingham Co., Georgia. Father is guesswork. We know Abraham Dupuis Sr. had 50 acre grant in Orangeburgh 1752 (alone); Abraham Dupuis Jr. had 150 acre grant in Orangeburgh 1752 (wife 1 child); we know Georgia Gov. John Adam Treutlen was married to a Marguerite Dupuis in Ebenezer, GA and was murdered in 1782 while visiting relatives in Orangeburhg. DAR linage #98242 and #104156

SPOUSE John: Treutlen family expelled from their home by a Catholic ruler and fled with other protestants to England. After a brief sojourn there, the parents and two sons, Frederick and John Adam, set sail for Georgia. During their journey to America, pirates captured their boat, robbed them of their possessions, and cast the father into prison where he either died or was killed. Treutlen's mother and two sons eventually arrived in Georgia. The mother remarried and took John Adam to the Salzburger pastors to be educated when he was eleven. Frederick got land. John Adam confirmed, according to Lutherans, in 1747, and became a member of the Salzburger Church at Ebenezer, Georgia. In 1781 elected to the South Carolina House of Representative from St. Matthews Parish. At the same time, he was elected to the Georgia legislature. He attended the Georgia legislature in January 1782 and was brutally slain by Tories in South Carolina some time before April of that year. See Orangeburgh District 1768-1868 by Culler, pgs 348-9 for account of murder by Tories near Metts' Cross Road in St. Matthews Parish while visiting relatives in 1782. John Adam Treutlen was elected Georgia's first governor in 1777.

Children:

i Elizabeth Treutlen born 13 Feb 1757, died 9 Dec 1759.

ii Jonathan Treutlen born 22 Aug 1758, died 29 Aug 1758.

iii Elizabeth Treutlen born 8 Apr 1760, married 8 Apr 1778, in Effingham Co., Georgia, William Kennedy, born 12 Aug 1757, (son of Hugh Kennedy and Ottilie Schremps) died ABT 1810, Effingham Co., Georgia. Have childen Effingham/Liberty Cos., GA.

iv Dorothea Treutlen born 21 Feb 1762. This child not listed on all sources.

v Mary Treutlen born 16 Nov 1764, married Edward Dudley. While attending a dance at Colonel Rumph's house recognized Treutlen's watch chain. The young man confessed to being one of twelve Tories that had murdered Governor Treutlen. The twelve Tories were hanged on the same oak tree where Governor Treutlen had been murdered.

vi Hanna Treutlen born 26 Feb 1766, married Jacob Wisenbaker, born 4 Aug 1760.

vii Christian Treutlen married Mary _____. Christian died ABT 1820.

viii John Adam Treutlen Junr. born 29 Aug 1770, married Ann Margaret Miller.

Dear Melanie,

An hour ago I went to the mail box and there was your letter! I've been excited ever since! Thank you so much for taking the time to write and exchange what you have.

My DuPuis line comes from my mother-in-law...she is a DuPuis. My sister-in-law, Jan, began researching her family lines about 12 years ago. I really became active with tracing my husband's family about 2 years ago. Most of what I have has been inherited from Jan. However, I have been able to find a few new clues and together we feel we are close to connecting our DuPuis with Abraham DuPuis, Jr.

Our DuPuis ancestors came to Marion Co, FL approximately 1855. Jan was able to locate them in Beaufort Co, SC by using soundex. They turned up in St. Peter's Parish, Beaufort Co, SC on the 1850 census, along with Seth DuPuis, who we assume to be an older brother or uncle.

Several months ago I found some records for Effingham

Co, GA with a lot of DuPuis names which connected with ones in Purrysburg settlement in SC. These listings included a number of other family surnames which the DuPuis's married into. SO...I feel that Jan and I are knocking on the door, but no one's answering...yet!

I would be happy to share with you any info I have or find in the future. I have copies of Effingham County Legal Records from the Georgia Genealogical Magazine which speak of a William DuPuis as well as Helvensteins and Staffords. If you would like copies of this, please let me know. The names Herlong and Varnado were new to me. These DuPuis's were associated with the German Lutheran Church in Savannah.

I also have received a letter from Ms. Johnnie Riley White of Santa Rosa Beach, Florida who feels she connects to the DuPuis's of Purrysburg although her name was changed to Dupree.

I do not know of Jeannie Jones, but would be anxious to correspond with her in the hopes of finding more information than I have at the present.

I was able to get a little computer earlier this year and have finally gotten all my info packed into it. I sort of feel "safe" to have a nervous breakdown now...then the info I've accumulated will not be lost. (Just kidding about the nervous breakdown. At least I hope I am!)

Well, I have certainly rambled on enough for one day. Again, thank you so much for your letter and I look forward to sharing with you in the future.

Sincerely,

Lynne

1 Birth date extrapolated from reported birth date of his son Abraham, b. 19 Mar 1689 in the area of Yverdon, Switzerland. The information was given on Abraham's death record. Another account says Robert's son Abraham emigrated from France in 1697, aged 15y, so his birth would have occurred in 1682.

Oskar HORNUNG, Friedrichstal, History of This Huguenot Community on Its 250th Anniversary, 2nd Edition; publ. 1974. Hereinafter cited as: Friedrichstal History.

p. 167: Abraham DUPUIS, a Huguenot, son of Robert, came to Germany form the area of GEX [compiler: French community on the Swiss-French border to the northwest of Geneva]. He emigrated from France in 1697 at the age of 15, lived in Yverdon, Switzerland, and temporarily in Auerbach and Langensteinbach [compiler: the latter two towns appear to be suburbs of Karlsruhe].

2 "The German Huguenot", Volume 54, No. 4, December 1990.

"The esteemed Robert DUPUIS, French refugee, resident of Yverdon, has just now lost his life through an unforeseen accident. He was killed when the wheels of his wagon ran over his head, rolling over both eyes. The cart, which was loaded with hay, came from the meadows above the mills, etc." The same record mentions a son Jean Pierre DUPUIS who lives in Chamblon, as well as "a brother and two sisters who live outside of our country."

[This information from a Yverdon, Switzerland, Legal Record of 1730, submitted by Ludwig Dupuis, MD. The article was quoted by Theo GIRAUD in his book on his grandparents, Peter and Luis Marie GIRAUD.]

3 Theo GIRAUD, Genealogical Notes of my Grandparents Peter GIRAUD and Luis Marie HORNUNG, Their Descendants, Collateral Lines and Ancestors; publ. 1993 Friedrichstal, Baden, Germany. [copy of the book given to compiler by HERLAN Family Historian Stu HERLAN of Columbus, OH.] Hereinafter cited as: GIRAUD History.

P. 274: Robert DUPUIS, father of the Friedrichstaler DUPUIS, after fleeing to Switzerland in 1685, became a citizen of Gressy near Yverdon and acquired a house in Yverdon, where he had a forge and pursued the trade of blacksmith.

4 Registers of the Evangelical Church in Friedrichstal, Baden, Germany. {LDS Film #1,272,873]. Hereinafter cited as: Friedrichstal Records. Book II: Deaths, 1747-1802, p. 15.

Abraham DUPUIS, d. 10 Mar 1759, bur 12th; b. 19 Mar 1689 in the area of Yverdon, Switzerland.

5 Currently, there are 2 cemeteries in Friedrichstal -- the original one located in the village not far from the church and a newer one on the outskirts of the community. Descendants of the early settlers who still reside in Friedrichstal assured me that the early settlers were all buried in the original cemetery. All the tombstones have been removed and the gravesites reused. The oldest tombstones in the "old" cemetery date to 1945.

6 Friedrichstal Records. Book II: Marriages, 1710-1747, p. 78.

Abraham DUPUIS, resident of Friedrichstal, s/o Robert DUPUIS, French refugee living in Yverdon, Switzerland and ?Gressy, and Susanne GORENFLO, the widow of Jean Baptiste DESMARAIS of Carlsbach, were married on 9 Oct 1714 after 3 announcements in church.

Chapter: The Origins of the Population.
p. 167: Abraham DUPUIS, a Huguenot, son of Robert, came to Germany from the area of Gex [compiler: French community on the Swiss-French border to the northwest of Geneva]. He emigrated from France in 1697 at the age of 15, lived in Yverdun, Switzerland, and temporarily in Auerbach and Langensteinbach [compiler: the latter two towns appear to be suburbs of Karlsruhe]. On 6 May 1700, he was enumerated as a colonist in Friedrichstal.
[If this account is accurate, Abraham was born ca. 1682 rather than 1689.]

P. 274: Robert DUPUIS, father of the Friedrichstaler DUPUIS, after fleeing to Switzerland in 1685, became a citizen of Gressy near Yverdon and acquired a house in Yverdon, where he had a forge and pursued the trade of blacksmith

4 Currently, there are 2 cemeteries in Friedrichstal -- the original one located in what is now the old section of the village, and the new cemetery located on the outskirts. Descendants of the original settlers who still live in the village have assured me that the early settlers were all buried in the original cemetery. Since then, the headstones have been removed and burial sites reused, since the earliest markers in the "old" cemetery date to 1945.

Jean DUPUIS confirmed 1732
Generally, the young people of this community were confirmed at about 15 or 16 years of age. Using this "rule" as a guide, Jean was probably born ca. July to November 1715, some 9 to 12 months after the marriage of Abraham DUPUIS & Marie Barbara GORENFLO. Even in the absence of any positive designation of his parentage, Jean, or Jean Martin as he was identified in later records, was probably their eldest child -- there were no other DUPUISs in the village at that early time.
